

NEW MUSIC CONCERTS

1973-74 series

Toronto is developing as a major centre for contemporary music thanks to the efforts of New Music Concerts. "This series has become a must for listeners who want to keep up with where music is going internationally."

- William Littler, Toronto Star

Saturday, February 23 at 8:30 p.m.

is the next concert of the series and promises all kinds of exciting sounds:

- World premiere of MAKAZOTI, a spatially conceived work originally written for the SWINGLE SINGERS
- 4 Canadian premieres
- a piece for 8 channel stereophonic tape
- an improvised work for 4 mobile musicians
- and more!

featuring:

3 visiting internationally-known composers

Micheline Coulombe Saint-Marcoux (Canada)

Karel Goeyvaerts (Belgium)

Alcides Lanza (Argentina)

- with guest artist, ROBERT AITKEN, flutist and a cast of many

Come, and bring your friends. . .we promise you a very different evening!

Edward Johnson Bldg., University of Toronto

8 Queens Park Cres., behind the Planetarium

Adults $2.50

Students $1.50

967-5257