

Good evening, and thanks for joining us tonight for this exciting series of programs demonstrating contemporary classical music.

My name is Linda, and I work in the Performing Arts Dept. of Toronto Reference Library.

Jason van Eyk is the person most responsible for organizing this 4 part series, and we are all deeply thankful for all his hard work. Unfortunately, Jason is feeling a bit under the weather, and is not with us tonight. Jason is the Ontario Regional Director of the Canadian Music Centre, among many, many other activities.

However, Elisabeth Bihl, Executive Director of the Canadian Music Centre and its five regional offices IS here, and we are delighted that she could join us. Elisabeth is an amazing lady who has worked with world class symphony orchestras, is a founding member of the International Ottawa Jazz Festival, and is a past vice-president of the American Marketing Association.

I would also like to introduce and welcome back our host for this series, Toronto Star's classical film critic, John Terauds. John is also the director of music at St. Peter's Anglican Church in Toronto.

Tonight's performers are Robert Aitken and Dianne Aitken on flutes, and the New Music Concerts Wind Quintet. Our theme this evening is From Near to Far: World Influences in Contemporary Music.

NOTE: May 2: From Man to Machine has changed to From Sound to Structure; please refer to new brochures.

And please feel free to fill out contact information if you want to be notified about upcoming concerts and events by the various organizations represented in this series.

(2001, György Ligeti, Atmospheres, Lux Aeterna ("Eternal Light"), Adventures, and the "Kyrie" section of Requiem) micropolyphony

Track list:

The music as it appears in the film:

01. Overture: Atmospheres - György Ligeti
03. Requiem for Soprano, Mezzo Soprano, Two mixed Choirs & Orchestra - György Ligeti
05. Lux Aeterna - György Ligeti
07. Jupiter and Beyond - from "Requiem", "Atmospheres" and "Adventures" by György Ligeti

Supplemental material:

11. Lux Aeterna - György Ligeti
12. Adventures - (unaltered) by György Ligeti